

Task 1 – read this information

Ancient Hawaiians filled their amazing land and history with Tiki gods. They worshipped their Tiki gods in different ways including sacrifice and chants. A tiki was intended to represent very important, respected authorities, namely principal gods, guardians and spirit powers.

Easter Island is only 24 km long and 11 km wide. The island was populated around 1,000 AD and European seafarers first visited it on Easter Day 1722.

Making Tiki sculptures is very popular for the tourist trade.

Task 2: Carefully copy this Tiki title

Add careful colouring using warm colours Browns, reds, orange, yellow and outline in black or perhaps just a colour glow
