Reference in the procedure/policy to GR relates to relevant sections of the current JCQ publication General Regulations for Approved Centres.

Introduction

Certificates are provided by awarding bodies after examination results have been confirmed. Certificates always remain the property of the awarding bodies.

Purpose of the procedure/policy

The purpose of this procedure/policy is to confirm how Queensbury Special School issues examination certificates to candidates and the policy for the retention of any unclaimed/uncollected certificates in compliance with JCQ regulations.

Issue of certificates

Queensbury Special School will:

- obtain and maintain accurate candidate contact information to ensure the correct and secure despatch of certificates (GR 5.14)
- distribute certificates to all candidates without delay and regardless of any disputes (GR 5.14)
- not withhold any certificate without prior permission from the relevant awarding body which will only be given in very exceptional circumstances (GR 5.14)
- keep a record of the certificates that are issued (GR 5.14)
- return any certificates requested by the awarding bodies as certificates always remain the property of the awarding bodies (GR 5.14)

The receipt of certificates from awarding bodies and arrangements for the issue of certificates to candidates is managed by S.Wolverson Exams Officer.

Arrangements for the issue of certificates

Candidates are initially invited to collect certificates at awards evening, a register is kept of attendees, a copy of this is passed to the exams officer as a record of collection. Where candidates do not attend awards evening they are asked to come into school to collect. Certificates are not posted to candidates unless a SAE is provided by the candidate, with the understanding that they are not covered for insurance purposes if the certificates are lost in the post

Candidates are informed of the arrangements for the issue of certificates as follows:

- letter to to the candidate and via the school's social media accounts

Where unable to claim/collect certificates under the normal arrangements

Candidates unable to attend awards night are able to arrange collection from the school at a mutually convenient time. Candidates that are still students at Queensbury are asked to collect from the Exams Office.

Record of issued certificates

Candidates are asked to sign upon receipt of their certificates, those attending Awards night do this via a register., this record is retained by the exams officer. Candidates collecting at any other time are asked to sign for their certificates. Records are kept for at least 5 years following collection of the certificates

Retention of certificates

Queensbury Special School will:

- retain all unclaimed certificates under secure conditions for a minimum of 12 months from the date of issue (GR 5.14)
- destroy any unclaimed certificates after retaining them for a minimum of 12 months (GR 5.14)
- destroy certificates in a confidential manner or may return them to the respective awarding body (GR 5.14)
- retain a record of certificates that have been destroyed for four years from their date of destruction (GR 5.14)
- (where applicable) inform candidates that some awarding bodies do not offer a replacement certificate service and in such circumstances the awarding body will issue a Certifying Statement of Results which will provide an accurate and complete record of results for all qualifications covered by the original certificate (GR 5.14)

The retention of unclaimed or uncollected certificates is managed by S. Wolverson Exams Officer.

Retention policy

Unclaimed certificates are retained by the Exams Officer under secure storage. Candidates are contacted by letter to arrange collection, with a warning that certificates may be destroyed. Certificates are currently retained by Exams Officer until a candidates 65th birthday. If this date is reached then the certificates will be destroyed confidentially as per the JCQ regulations at that time. this date has been agreed by MAT Compliance/ Data Protection Officer
